9th May 2025

Awards of the week

Stars of the week:

Willow class: Lyla for working hard on her letter formation.

Chestnut class: Brogan for applying grammatical features effectively in his writing.

Oak class: Archer for his great attitude to learning.

Hazel class: Sebastian for asking great questions and having strong arguments in RE.

Sports people of the week: Jonah for his fantastic teamwork and Rafe for his perseverance and confidence in swimming.

Good Samaritans of the week: Kayden for being kind another child in the lunch hall.

Readers of the week: Due to our special VE day assembly we will celebrate two weeks of awards next week.

Year 6 SATs week

Next week it is year 6 SATs week; the year 6 children are invited in for a relaxed breakfast from 8am beforehand on each day Monday to Thursday- the school gate will be open for 5 mins from 8am for these children only. We hope they can join us, there is no charge for the breakfasts.

Oak class sharing assembly and refreshments

On Friday 16th May this week at 2pm, Parents and Carers of the children in Oak class are welcome to come for refreshments. At 2.30 pm Oak class will show you what they have been learning in an assembly. Afterwards there will be a chance to look at the children’s work in their classroom. (Just a reminder we will need to collect hot drink cups before the children come into assembly.)

May Weather

Please be prepared for everything as it...

May be sunny – hats, sun cream to be applied for the day before the children come into school and water bottles are needed.

May be windy- a jumper or cardigan is needed.

May be raining- a jacket is needed.

May be all of the above- please have everything to hand ready for whatever weather in May, may be happening. Thank you for your flexibility with this.

(May 1975 there was also a snow storm- you never know!)
