IMPORTANT REMINDERS

The Scholastic book fair is in the school hall, starting today, on Monday and Tuesday. After picking up your child please come through the playground doors to the school hall. Please bring your credit or debit card and a phone to follow a QR code to pay for books. The more books purchased means the more books the school receives for the library. There are lots of books for under £5 and book bundles for a fraction of their usual cost.

Siblings and individual photographs are next Thursday 18th if you have younger non-school age children, or older and you want in a sibling photo with your child please come for 9am and we will do those photos first, these are great as Christmas gifts!

Clubs will be live on Parent Pay tomorrow 13th September for you to book a place for your child.

We have a lot of good quality pre-loved school clothes, including swimwear in the front porch. Please come and take what you may need. Please can we have clothing for all weathers in school. Sun hats, jumpers, coats and trainers or wellies (that are not used for school shoes or PE) for use on a wet field, thank you.
